Strong Pledge.—A pledge made for Gen. Taylor by John J. Crittenden, of Kentucky, at the ratification meeting at the City Hall, in Washington, about the 12th June, 1848: " Mr. Crittenden said, in substance, that he (Mr. C.) had seen a letter in Gen. Taylor's handwriting, in which Gen Taylor said that "he would proscribe no man because he was a Democrat—that both Democrats and Whigs stood by him at the Battle of Monterey, shedding their blood together for their country. and he would be the last man to deny to the Democrats a fair share of the offices."

It is with great pleasure we hear it said that George Loyall, esq., the navy agent of the United States at Norfolk, is again nominated to the same office by the President of the United States. The reappointment is credible to the administration. No man is more worthy of their confidence than George Loyall .- Wash. Union.

Sudden Changes .- There is nothing more trying to the human constitution than sudden changes of weather. Heat rarifies the blood, and increases the perspiration; but when suddenly checked, those humors which should pass off by the skin, are thrown off inwardly, causing coughs, colds, consumption, difficulty of breathing watery and inflamed eyes, sore throat, and many other

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are a delightful medicine for carrying off a cold-because they expel from the body those humors which are the cause of the above complaints. > Asthma of Eleven Years Standing, Permanently cured by Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, after all other remedies

> CINCINNATI, February 19, 1847. Dr. SWAYNE-This may certify that eleven years ago last fall, I was troubled with the Asthms, which increased upon me in defiance of all the remedies I could hear of, until the year 1839-'40, when I was obliged to leave my native New England for a milder clime, which had the effect to mitigate my sufferings for three or four years. after which the disease increased until last winter. My sufferings were intense, almost beyond endurance, being obliged to sit up night after night, from inability to sleep in bed Last Fall I felt the symptoms earlier than usual in the season, but hearing that Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry was a sovereign remedy for Diseases of the Lungs, I immediately commenced its use, and the result was almost immediate relief. To the Public. WITH surprise and indignation, the undersigned have seen a certificate over our names, published in the Wilmington Chronicle and the ournal, purporting to give the substance of a remark which we had heard by a lady, whose name mentioned in said publication. It is due to ourselves to say that J P. Jordan who has published said certificate, has used our names without permission, and acted without our knowledge or consent. We further say, that what he has published as our certificate, is incor- The Marrying Man. rect in substance and meaning, very different from any remark we have ever heard made by the lady, whose name he has also taken the liberty of bringing before the public. We did on one occasion hear her say that if her husband had listened to her, he would have gone and put an end to Jordan's existence, or scattered his brains, and saved his friends their present vexation and disturbance. Given under our hands March 2d, 1849.
